NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

Polaris Industries Inc., a Delaware corporation with a mailing address of 2100 Highway 55, Medina, Minnesota, 55340-9770, United States (hereinafter "Opposer"), believes it will be damaged by the registration of the marks shown in application Serial Nos. 77/573,498 and 77/573,619, filed on September 18, 2008, by Polaris Laboratories, LLC, an Indiana limited liability company with a mailing address of 7898 N. Zionsville Road, Indianapolis, Indiana 46268, United States (hereinafter "Applicant"), and hereby opposes registration of the marks.

The grounds for opposition are as follows:

1. By the applications herein opposed, Applicant is seeking to obtain under the provisions of the Trademark Act of 1946 as amended, registration on the Principal Register of the marks POLARIS LABORATORIES and POLARIS LABORATORIES and Design for "testing and analysis services for oils, fuels, coolants and water-based fluids used in the operation of motor vehicles and machinery," in International Class 42. The applications were filed with the United States Patent and Trademark Office on September 18, 2008, subject to Section 1(a) of the Act.

2. Applicant's marks published for opposition on August 4, 2009. On August 27, 2009, Opposer filed with the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board a ninety (90) day extension of time to oppose the subject applications. On November 17, 2009, Opposer filed with the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board a further sixty (60) day extension of time to oppose with the consent of Applicant. This Notice of Opposition is timely filed.

3. For more than six decades, Opposer and its predecessors in interest have used the POLARIS mark in connection with a wide variety of goods and services, including recreational vehicles and structural parts therefor, to include all-terrain vehicles, snowmobiles, motorcycles, all-terrain utility vehicles, accessories therefor and related warranty and financing services. In addition, Opposer has used the POLARIS mark in connection with engine oil since at least as early as 1969.

4. Opposer is also the owner of the following U.S. registrations and applications, among others, all incorporating at least in part the mark POLARIS (see Exhibit A for current printouts of information from the electronic database records of the USPTO showing the current status and title of the registrations and applications):

5. Opposer has advertised and promoted its POLARIS marks extensively. Opposer has also made substantial sales under said marks. As a result of such use and promotion, Opposer's marks have developed and represent valuable goodwill inuring to the benefit of Opposer. In addition, Opposer's POLARIS mark is famous, and became famous prior to Applicant's use of the POLARIS LABORATORIES marks.

6. Opposer has priority with respect to the marks at issue in this opposition. Opposer has adopted and commenced use of its POLARIS and POLARIS Design marks long before the September 18, 2008 filing date of Applicant's application. Opposer and its predecessors in interests' use of the POLARIS and POLARIS and Design marks commenced at least as early 1949, more than six (6) decades prior to the filing date of Applicant's application, and more than five (5) decades prior to Applicant's alleged date of first use in commerce.

7. Applicant's marks are confusingly and deceptively similar to Opposer's marks. The marks have a confusingly similar meaning, and the goods and services of the parties are closely related.

8. Due to the similarity between Applicant's claimed marks and Opposer's previously used and registered marks, and the closely related nature of the goods and services of the respective parties, consumers and potential consumers are likely to believe that Applicant's services originate from or are sponsored or otherwise affiliated with Opposer, resulting in a likelihood of confusion in the marketplace, and damage to Opposer.

9. Upon information and belief, the services subject to Applicant's applications are used for testing and analyzing goods like those of Opposer under its POLARIS marks.

10. Applicant's POLARIS LABORATORIES and POLARIS LABORATORIES and Design marks are confusingly similar in sight, sound and commercial impression to Opposer's POLARIS and POLARIS and Design marks.

11. The use and registration by Applicant of the marks POLARIS LABORATORIES and POLARIS LABORATORIES and Design for Applicant's services is likely to cause confusion or to cause mistake or deception among consumers and potential consumers, with Opposer's previously used and registered POLARIS and POLARIS and Design marks, again resulting in damage to Opposer.

12. Applicant's mark dilutes and weakens Opposer's marks in violation of Opposer's rights, causing dilution of the distinctive qualities of Opposer's marks.

13. Because of the related nature of the goods and services, and the confusing similarity in appearance, sound and commercial impression of the marks, use and registration of the marks POLARIS LABORATORIES and POLARIS LABORATORIES and Design by Applicant is likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception that Applicant's services are those of Opposer, or are otherwise endorsed, sponsored, or approved by Opposer causing further damage to Opposer.

14. If Applicant is granted registration of the marks herein opposed, it would thereby obtain at least a prima facie exclusive right to the use of its alleged marks. Such registration would be a source of further damage and injury to Opposer.

15. Registration of the marks shown in Application Serial Nos. 77/573,498 and 77/573,619 will result in damage to Opposer under the provisions of Section 2 of the U.S. Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052, pursuant to the allegations stated above.

WHEREFORE, Opposer requests that its opposition to these applications be sustained and that the registration of the marks POLARIS LABORATORIES and POLARIS LABORATORIES and Design set forth therein be refused.
